The University of Connecticut is one of 11 higher education institutions hand-picked by the Carnegie Corporation of New York to become a member of the Teachers for a New Era (TNE) network.

By investing $65 million into this ambitious national reform initiative, Carnegie, with additional support by the Annenberg and Ford foundations, intends to stimulate the construction of excellent teacher education programs.

For more information on the TNE project, please visit www.tne.uconn.edu

The University of Connecticut’s President Philip E. Austin and Provost Fred Maryanski cordially invite you to the Teachers for a New Era Inaugural Event

Friday, October 1, 2004

1 P.M. LUNCHEON
Charles Burt Gentry Building - Atrium
249 Glenbrook Road

2 P.M. KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Dr. Vartan Gregorian, President, Carnegie Corporation of New York will share his vision on teacher preparation and the American educational system.

Student Union Theatre
2110 Hillside Road
Storrs, Connecticut